

16 August 2017

the absence of students attending the University to support faculty excusing no opportunity for students which will further the solar eclipse as a unique learning and educational opportunities university would be an experience that a classroom cannot replicate in a

WHEDEAC. This case

standard setting, and University with required "University Studies" courses...

Teri Wood, President